

LAW ENFORCEMENT & MILITARY
PROTECTIVE SERVICES
OPERATORS TRAINING COURSE

Protective Services Operators Course is designed for on and off duty personnel who are tasked with protecting Very Important Persons in static and mobile situations. Whether you will be protecting a diplomat in Los Angeles, corporate CEO or a political candidate's family, the course is geared to assist you in accomplishing your mission; with a good balance of classroom work and hands-on exercises and drills.

In this course you will be taught:

- Threat assessment
- Team assignments
- Proper dress & protocol
- Advance detail duties
- Vehicle operations (formations, motorcade)
- Protection protocol
- Foot formations
- Communications
- Will to survive / client survival

For the final day of training, your team will be protecting a VIP. Your VIP will have a schedule to follow, and you'll make sure he or she will be safe. You won't know when or where an autograph seeker, deranged person with a rotten egg or pie or terrorist cell will make a move and try to get close to your principal. This portion of the course will take place in public places (malls, museums, theaters, restaurants, etc.)

Course gear list and related details sent on registration. The training consists of 3, twelve hour days.
